3. Discussion of Follow-on Study to NIE 11-4

The Chairman, with the concurrence of the Board, endorsed the NIO's proposal to adopt an additional Key Intelligence Question (KIQ) which would focus Community attention on the subject and to use the KIQ strategy paper as a planning document for the collection and analysis that will be required to follow through on the study. The NIO, [REDACTED] agreed to circulate a draft strategy to the Board shortly for consideration at an early meeting. The Chairman repeated his desire that the Board become more involved in this process and again requested that every 60 to 90 days the principals have a substantive discussion on the progress that has been made.

The D/DCI/NI reminded the Board that nominations for an NIO for Nuclear Proliferation are due on 9 February and urged that names of persons who are versed in the political, military and economic implications of nuclear affairs be provided. The Chairman noted that Board Principals need not be restricted to nominating an individual from their own agency.

The meeting adjourned at 1150.
